Observations on Using News Cases and Beauchamp’s Four Principles in Teaching Students in Health Service Management

Derrick Kit-Sing AU
MD(Brown U) FHKCP FHKAM FRCP(Edin) FRCP(Glasg)

Abstract

In this presentation, Dr AU shares his experience and observations in designing and delivering lectures in health care ethics to students of the MSc in Heath Services Management Programme over a three-year period. Beauchamp’s Four Principles serves as one dimension of decision-making in health management but has its limitations. The rationale, value and challenge of using healthcare news cases for teaching are considered.